

MARCH 2024

Women Electability Observer:

Gender Justice in Governance Is Urged by Consensus and Collaboration

The Launch of the Women Electability Observer Initiative

Gender Concerns International is delighted to introduce the #WomenElectabilityObserver (#WEO) initiative its latest effort to combat #ElectabilityDiscrimination and fostering #GenderEqualDemocracy ahead of a crucial 2024 moment when over 2 billion women are expected to vote.

Read more...

Sharing Ambition and Direction for the Humanity Hub: Director Jill Wilkinson

Deputy Mayor Mariëlle Vavier and Director Sabra Bano at Humanity Hub Reception

Annual Peace and Justice Reception 2024

Director Jill Wilkinson delivered an insightful welcoming address in attendance of Mayor Jan van Zanen and Deputy Mayor Mariëlle Vavier at the Annual Peace and Justice Reception 2024 held at Humanity Hub on 1st February.

Read more...

New Year's International Gender Champions (IGC) Meeting at Swiss Residence

Her Excellency Ambassador Corinne Cicéron Bühler receives Intentional Gender Champion community at her residency.

Kicking Off the Year with Advocacy

The IGC New Year's Champions Breakfast Meeting took place on 18 January at the Swiss Residence - marking the first of four annual events hosted by the Hague Steering Committee.

Read more...

Celebrating the 20th Anniversary of Gender Concerns International

Two Decades of Empowerment

2024 marks the 20th Anniversary of Gender Concerns International, celebrating two decades of pioneering efforts in advancing women's leadership, governance equality, and peace and security across Europe, Asia, the Middle East, and North & West Africa.

Read more...

Looking Back at Events

A New Chapter in Gender Advocacy

Gender Concerns International Relocated to the Humanity Hub

Relocating to the Humanity Hub enriches collaboration, accessibility, and ability to work with organisations with similar goals of promoting and progressing human rights and gender equality.

Read more...

Immediate Action and Thorough Investigation Into Allegations Against Israel

ICJ's Interim Ruling and Hearing on Gaza

The International Court of Justice (ICJ) emphasised the urgent need to address the Israel-Palestine conflict, focusing on Gaza's critical situation through an interim ruling and hearings aimed at peace and self-determination. Gender Concerns International calls for an immediate ceasefire to protect women, children, and ensure access to vital services.

Read more...

Upcoming Events

Join Gender Concerns at Democracy Drinks:

Investing in Women, Investing in Democracy

A Dialogue on Women's Empowerment with Sabra Bano at the Forefront

Director, Sabra Bano, is honoured to be one of the key speakers at the upcoming Democracy Drinks event, concentrating on 'Investing in Women: Investing in Democracy'

Read more...

NAP 1325 Signatory Event 'Women, Men, Peace & Security'

Delve into the crucial role of engaging men and masculinities in the Women, Peace & Security Agenda

As an all-time signatory, Gender Concerns International will be attending the upcoming NAP 1325 Signatory Event, 'Women, Men, Peace & Security,' which is set to take place on the 7th of March 2024. Highlighted by keynote speeches, the event promises to offer profound insights into how gender equality can lead to more inclusive security and enduring peace.

Read more...

CSW68 11-22 March 2024

Women organisations and Civil Society getting ready to influence Agreed Conclusion at CSW68

As a member of Core Group CSW68 of Dutch CSOs Network it was a pleasure to attend the Annual NGO CSW Briefing at the Ministry of OCV last January. In the upcoming months Gender Concerns International will be fully engaged to observe the ongoing talks and subsequent recommendations from CSW68.

Read more...

