NAP 1325: Example Good Practice

EXAMPLE GOOD PRACTICE

Alghan women's voices

In line with NAP 1325-I, the Afghan Women's Network and the NAP 1325 signatory Gender Concerns International organised a conference in 2010 to generate support among the international community for a delegation of Afghan women to be represented at a UN conference on the future of Afghanistan. The

Supporting and Leading NAP 1325 Activities Since 2007

On June 12th, the bi-annual meeting NAP 1325- IV took place with an event on safeguarding women and girls in and from conflict zones. As a committed advocate for gender equality, we partnered with the Dutch government since 2007 to actively support the inclusion of women's rights in the agenda for the reconstruction of Afghanistan.
